

'Keep Away' Is Plea

(COURIER NEWS SERVICE)
CHARLES CITY — Mayor Harry Brenton Tuesday asked that Memorial Day sightseers stay away from Charles City so cleanup operations can continue through the holiday.

Charles City was one of four northeastern Iowa communities devastated by tornadoes two weeks ago.

"This will be a big weekend as far as cleanup work is concerned," Brenton said. "Visitors will just get in the way."

A tornado which swept through the middle of the town May 15 flattened most of the business district and an estimated two-thirds of the homes.

"We have come a long way, but we've still got a long way to go," said Assistant City Engineer Tom Craft. All the city's streets have been cleared of rubble and residents are hauling off and burning what remains of their homes, he said. Some 207 building permits, most of them for homes, have been issued to residents, he added.

Salvation Army officials Tuesday received clothing, furniture and canned goods which arrived by truck from Lincoln, Neb.

Headed by Lincoln Mayor Sam Swartzkoff, the commodities were gathered over the weekend during "good neighbor days" in the Nebraska capital.
